Comfort for the Sleepless

I woke up with foreboding, and despair

Lurked in the gloomy shadows of the night;

But very weak and foolish is my care

If Jesus Christ was right.

All the grim puzzles of the universe
Compassed me round, all nature's endless fight;

But I shall see a blessing, not a curse,

If Jesus Christ was right.

And most of all, longing for those who died

Smote at my heart with overwhelming might;

But I shall see them and be satisfied

If Jesus Christ was right.

Calling all our lovely cake makers!

Cream Teas start on Bank Holiday Monday, 29th May, and continue on every following Sunday until 24th September. Gifts of cakes will be very welcome throughout the summer. If you don't bake, there are some good ones available in the shops or you could donate a pot or two of strawberry jam.

With thanks, Beryl and Ian Guy and Hilary Hide.

Because of the number of people who plan to be away in July it will be difficult to cover duties for all the services. Could I ask that as much notice as possible is given about your times away in the next few months and if you would consider helping in more than one service in the month so I can fill all the gaps left by those on holiday.

Many Thanks , Sue Kinnon.
