Thursday: Women's Fellowship 2 pm
- a special open meeting when Captain Kamran Irani will be telling us about Blood Bikers

The Harvest Festival service last Sunday was very well attended, and a little different. A choir of children from Curzon School gave us a rendering of "Thank you, Lord, for this fine day", and "Our God is so big", complete with actions. Children took part in most of the aspects of the service, in particular helping Peter with his sermon. Later on there was a Harvest Lunch in the Church Centre, where we tucked into tasty shepherds pie and a variety of delicious desserts. A happy day!

The Women's Fellowship are having two rather special meetings in November, to which everyone is invited. On November 1st Captain Kamran Irani will be telling us about Blood Bikers, who provide a free out of hours medical transportation service to the National Health Service. I have heard Captain Irani before, and he is most interesting, and may park his special motorbike outside. Then on November 15th Bucks Voices Male Voice Choir will be coming to entertain us – their previous visits have been very popular. Both events are at 2 pm in the Church Centre, and all, men included, are welcome.

When you enter this church it may be possible that you hear "the call of God". However, it is unlikely that He will call you on your mobile. Thank you for turning off your phones. If you want to talk to God, enter, choose a quiet place and talk to Him. If you want to see Him, send Him a text while driving.
