"Voices! I think I can hear strange voices", said a dog walker going past our Penn Street churchyard last week along the pathway by the woods.

No, nothing supernatural. just part of the Chiltern Arts Festival 'Son et Lumiere' at the back of Holy Trinity which took place inside and outside the church last week.

On Wednesday afternoon a group from year 5 and 6 at Curzon School went along there to enjoy a performance from a Brass Quartet called 'A4'; especially as the school has some trombone players amongst them, who really appreciated the brass in action. The group played a variety of compositions - largely arranged by themselves. It was a special experience to see such musical talent. MJC

A suggestion for Lent

Fast from hurting words and say kind words
Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude
Fast from anger and be filled with patience
Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope
Fast from worries and trust in God
Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity
Fast from pressures and be prayerful
Fast from bitterness and fill your heart with joy
Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others
Fast from grudges and be reconciled
Fast from words and be silent so you can listen
